COACHES' CORNER

The intramural volleyball season ended just before the Christmas holidays. As expected, Cookie and Co. took the title, when the Losers forfeited their match. The forfeit gave the Co. a 5 - 0 overall season, the first and only undefeated season in the history of PTS volleyball. The Sacrificial Lambs took second place with a 4 - 1 record. They have a basically Junior team and should be back strong next year. The only other match played during the final week saw the Leaping Gnomes beat the Runt and the Rest. The other teams will remain anonymous in the cellar. THANK YOU ALL FOR A GOOD SEASON! We hope the popularity of volleyball this year means that it will continue for a long time.

The PTS varsity basketball team opened its season with a 70 - 60 loss to the faculty of the Skillman Training School for Boys. The PTS team played better than the score would indicate but was hampered by the absence of many regulars. The poor turnout forced MARK LAASER and DAVE VANDER ZWAAG out of retirement and into the starting lineup: Laaser led the team with 18 points; DICK RAMSEY, 16.

WE ASK YOU URGENTLY TO TRY AND GET YOUR INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL ROSTERS IN TO US IMMEDIATEL PLAY WILL BEGIN ALMOST AT ONCE--PLEASE HELP US OUT ON THIS! Mark & Dave.

The Seminary Community has lost a beloved friend.

On January 1, 1974, Charles E. Lake suffered a brain hemorrhage and died within hours while visiting with his family in Michigan for the holidays. Death came without warning. He was an M. Div. alumus (Class of 1971), a third-year doctoral student, and a Teaching Fellow in Old Testament.

The sympathy of the Community is extended to his wife, Sue, and to the other members of his family.

In his memory the Seminary has established The Charles E. Lake Memorial Fund, which will be supported by his friends and colleagues. No final decision has been made about the use of the funds, but some permanent memorial to Chuck, here at Princeton, is planned.

Members of the Community who knew Chuck may wish to contribute. Checks may be made payable to Princeton Theological Seminary and marked for this particular purpose; they may be handed in at the Business Office.

Copy for the next issue of The Wineskin, which will announce events of 20-26 January 1974, must be received in the Public Relations Office not later than 12 noon, Tuesday, 16 January. Please type or legibly print and sign your material. Permission to use Seminary facilities must be secured in advance from the Office of Professional Studies (classrooms during class hours--NOTE CHANGE) or the Housing Office before events may be publicized. No attachments to these pages may be made without written permission from the editor.

Supplement #2-- Energy Conservation Plan

The energy conservation measures outlined in the memorandum of 21 November 1973 and Supplement #1, 11 December 1973, have been effective in permitting the Seminary to maintain the academic calendar and retain the use of needed facilities the first semester. During December 1973 the Seminary heating plant consumed 14 percent less fuel than in the same period for 1972. The level of consumption for January 1974, to date, is about 13 percent less than it was for the same period a year ago. I should like to thank all the members of the Seminary community for their excellent cooperation in helping to reduce the demand for fuel oil in Seminary facilities.

The outlook for the remainder of the winter is for a continued need to conserve fuel. Federal regulations issued on 15 January 1974 have set guidelines for temperatures in college buildings at 10° below temperatures in the same buildings a year ago, and temperatures in homes at 6° below those of a year ago. This would mean maximum temperatures in Seminary buildings of 66° and in homes of 68°. It is extremely important that these guidelines be adhered to because, once the Seminary has used its quota of fuel oil for the month, the Seminary would have no alternative but to close down. There is no possible way of getting additional supplies.

At this time, this appears a very unlikely possibility. However, the situation is still critical and requires that all members of the Seminary community continue their cooperation in maintaining the temperatures in this area at the levels indicated above. This, together with some help from the weatherperson and receipt of our indicated fuel allocation, will see us through the winter.

William E. Lawder
Business Manager.

NOTES

1. Made in 1927 the silent "King of Kings" (with an added musical score) makes obvious director Cecil B. DeMille's genius in the "spectaculars" for which he was famous. Comparisons with "Jesus Christ Superstar" seem inevitable, especially the prominence given Judas and Mary Magdalene. Given in conjunction with course NT41-TH55 The Life of Jesus, directed by the Reverend Drs. Hugh T. Kerr and Johan Christiaan Beker. Open to the public (free).

2. Mr. Eckel is District Superintendent of the Olean District, Western New York Conference, United Methodist Church. He will meet students from 7 to 10 P.M., by appointment. The interviews are open not only to Methodist students but to all other students interested in service in the UMC. Seniors will be especially interested, but members of any class or program may meet with Mr. Eckel and his two colleagues. Sign up in Room 122 Hodge Hall (green sheet).

3. The Reverend Clinton M. Marsh, a native of Annemanie, Alabama, is a graduate of Knoxville College and Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary. After a year as pastor in Chase City, Virginia, he was called to the United Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis. In 1963 he was assigned as administrator of the Organizing Assembly of the All-Africa Conference of Churches. Upon his return to this country, he became director of evangelism for the North Central area of the church. From 1965 to 1969 Mr. Marsh was administrator of the World Council of Churches Emergency Fund for Africa. He is now Director of the Commission on Church and Race of the Presbytery of Omaha and Secretary of Ministries Outside the Structure of the Church for the new Synod of Lakes and Prairies. The service is open to the public.

4. Following the Fellowship Meeting the Executive Committee will meet for a few minutes. All members of the Committee are requested to be present. Nymphas R. Edwards, Carl J. Kurapati

NOTES

1. All Chapel services this week are in commemoration of National Negro History Week. The major theme is the contributions of the Black Church in the development of American culture. The services are sponsored by the Association of Black Seminarians.

2. Dr. Fennell, a graduate of Victoria and Emmanuel Colleges of the University of Toronto, holds an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from United College, Winnipeg. During post-graduate studies at Union Theological Seminary, New York, he was an assistant to Paul Tillich and Reinhold Niebuhr. He has been Chairman of the National Executive of the Student Christian Movement of Canada; the Church and University and Faith and Order Commissions of the Canadian Council of Churches; the Committee of Direction of the Toronto Graduate School of Theological Studies; and the Committee on Cooperation in Theological Education, Toronto; President of the Canadian Theological Society; and Associate Editor of the Canadian Journal of Theology. Principal Fennell, who in the summer of 1959 led the Canadian delegation of World University Service at its International Assembly in Nigeria, served in 1961-65 as one of 8 theologians representing the North American Section of the World Alliance of Reformed Churches in consultation with eight representatives of the North American section of the Lutheran World Federation on the theological issues separating the two churches.

3. In this English version of "Gospel According to St. Matthew" the "Saint" was introduced against director Pasolini's wishes, and a dedication to John XXIII was deleted. "My style was religious," said Pasolini. "I thought it was . . . and all the critics thought it was, though they called it 'Catholic' rather than 'religious,' which was wrong." One reviewer remarked that ". . .the text is followed literally--and tediously."

4. The evening Banner Workshop will deal with the concept, function and form of banners, with planning groups to establish the tasks for Saturday. The Saturday session is designed to create banners for the Lenten season. Anyone in the Seminary community is invited to attend and to contribute time, talent and ideas. Laura Loving, Chapel Group.

COACHES' CORNER

Hello, sports fans! This is Mark and Dave speaking of sports . . . Welcome back to an action-packed winter of exciting competition.

Before Christmas the PTS Varsity Basketball Team defeated Eastern Baptist Seminary, 99-71, to boost the season record to 1 - 1. The Baptists were sorely inhibited in the game when, in the first minute of play, three of their starting five were raptured. More games are upcoming.

Intramural Basketball starts this week. We seem to have a lot of enthusiasm this year--and 8 strong teams. We will go out on a limb and pick the BROWN BOMBERS to win the title. During the off season they acquired JEFF NASLUND and MARK RICHARDSON, former Alex residents. Reportedly, each was offered a free Bible autographed by a high seminary official, an answer key to the Presbyterian Ordination examinations, 4 alleged relics and free tickets to all Princeton Seminary home basketball games. Closely behind the Bombers should be the HUMPZ, the NORTH NETTERS and PRINCETON-WINDSOR. All have strong rosters, and the competition should be close. REPORTS ON THE FIRST WEEK'S GAMES NEXT WEEK. Mark & Dave.

In varsity basketball, The Hun School beat us, 68 - 56. That spread was established and more during the first quarter. The rest of the game we did well, but it was not good enough to catch up. RON BENHAM was high for us, with 16 points.

Brown looked awfully tough in the first game of intramurals last week, beating Alex, 47 - 24. Alex just couldn't get their offense going or mount the needed defense. CHARLIE HEDDINGTON led Brown, with 16 points. The Humpz got a slow start, but managed to beat the Campbellites, 53 - 42. JOHN HERSHEY and DICK RAMSEY paced the attack. The Nuptial Netters lost to the Fundies, 45 - 43. RON COTTONE scored the sinning basket with 20 seconds left in the game.

The Enthusiasm of the Week Award goes to the improved Choir College team, who dazzled their partisan crowd with blazing yellow matching jerseys. The Choir College led Princeton-Windsor at half time, but managed to lose again, 39 - 29. .... Mark & Dave.

NOTES

1. Peter Sellers stars as the Reverend John Smallwood, a literal disciple of Christian poverty. "On a thematic level," wrote one reviewer, "'Heavens Above' compares well with Bunuel's 'Nazarin.'" The farce-satire effects to show that a wide-spread return to the literal precepts of Christianity would lead to social, economic and theological chaos.

2. Dr. Pittenger, formerly professor of Christian Apologetics at General Theological Seminary, New York, has been for many years a prominent figure in the ecumenical movement. He is widely known as a vigorous interpreter of the central Christian affirmations in today's world. Of the more than 30 books he has written or edited, perhaps the best known are "Historic Faith and a Changing World," "Christian View of Sexual Behavior," "Proclaiming Christ Today" and "Process Thought and Christian Faith."

3. All members of Koinonia are encouraged to join us at lunch for informal discussion of our common concerns and interests in the doctoral program. Alan Lewis.

4. All people interested in developing their creative writing skills are welcome to the workshop. If you have material you wish to submit for critical review, place it in the basket in the Main Lounge or the envelope on the Speech Department Bulletin Board by Friday, 22 February. Bill Grimbol.

5. ASH WEDNESDAY EVENING: The imposition of ashes and Eucharist. A service following the Anclican rite for Ash Wednesday. There will be a brief service of the preparation of the ashes on the chapel porch. Persons who have palms from last year or other articles for the fire are asked to bring them. Arlo D. Duba.

6. The distinguished historian's presentation, illustrated by colored slides, will include discussion of the borderline imagery, the "grafts" onto pagan concepts, the rival religions paralleling and overcome by Christianity and the causes underlying the triumph of Christianity.

Dr. Barrois is Associate Professor of the History of Art and of History at Westminster Choir College and since 1950 has been editor-in-chief of the "American Feature" section of the State Department's foreign cultural program. Incumbent of the Chair for American Studies at the University of Vienna, she was brought to this country by the State Department as an exchange professor. She holds a Ph.D. in Germanic Studies, a Ph.D. in Romance Literatures (Italian and French) and a Doctor Habil. in History from the University of Vienna. She is the author of three books: "Adventure America," in the area of American colonization; "Henry David Thoreau's Walden," a discussion of the American romantic trend; and "Outline History of American Literature," and has translated works by Margaret Mead, Willa Cather, Jack London and others into German.

Professor Barrois is married to the Reverend Dr. Georges Augustin Barrois, Professor of the History and Theology of the Medieval Church, Emeritus, at Princeton Seminary.

LENTEN FASTING: On Fridays during Lent there will be opportunity for corporate fasting in the Seminary Community. The spiritual aspect of fasting is an important element in the Lenten preparation. You are encouraged to participate in this form of our on-going liturgy, for educational and spiritual reasons, and to provide money for the areas in this world stricken with starvation. There will be fellowship hours during the customary noon mealtime, offering a variety of programs, including devotions, discussion, creative worship and the support often needed on the day of a fast.

There are various approaches to observing a fast, and while you are encouraged to participate in the total 24-hour fast, there are options of partial fasting (one meal) and abstinence from eating meat.

Because of the impracticability of rebate from the kitchen every Friday, only one day will board cards be pulled. On that Friday (probably Good Friday) the rebate will go toward CROP, the Hunger Relief Agency of Church World Service.

We will distribute sign-up forms Monday - Wednesday, February 25 - 27 in the Campus Center foyer. It is essential that we have your names so that food waste can be avoided. We will provide rpivate devotional guidelines for fasting-at-home and a place of fellowship will be offered at Princeton-Windsor, as well. Laura Loving.

FROM THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE: Princeton Street Ministry, Mercer County Prison Services Committee, The Fast against the Famine, International Students Scholarship Fund--these were the needs with which this year's Stewardship Drive was concerned. The Drive began just before Christmas; so far members of the Seminary Community have contributed $1,861.13. With the addition of $786.34 remaining from the 1973 Fund the Stewardship Committee will be able to distribute $2,647.47 in the coming year.

Some of the money in the Fund has also been set aside for personal emergency needs and for project proposals which come before the Committee during the second semester. Therefore, the Stewardship Committee asks that if anyone knows of a person in need of financial ehlp for medical, legal, family or other personal needs, or if anyone knows of a special cause which deserves funding, plesae contact Dan Rabovsky (305 Alex), Cliff Cain (210 Alex) or Cullan Herald (408 Alex) within the next week.

Anyone who did not have a chance to contribute to the Drive or anyone who wishes to make a further contribution can do so with any member of the Committee--or leave their contribution at the information window in the Administration. (Please make out all cheques to:

The community is reminded that a fund has been established in memory of the late Charles Lake. The purpose of the fund has now been agreed upon, as set forth in the Statement of Intent, below. Those who wish to contribute should send their cheques, marked as intended for this purpose, to the Treasurer of the Seminary.

CHARLES E. LAKE MEMORIAL FUND

A permanent endowment fund has been established at Princeton Theological Seminary in memory of Charles Edward Lake. The fund will be supported by that large group of friends and colleagues whose lives were enriched by his during his five and a half years at Princeton. The sole purpose of the endowment will be to support the collection at Speer Library or successor library at Princeton Theological Seminary.

The principal amount of the fund shall be maintained in the general endowment funds of the Seminary and the income shall be used to purchase books or other scholarly tools in the area of Bible studies. The books or other scholarly tools will be selected by a Committee of five consisting of two doctoral candidates, two members of the Seminary faculty from the area of Bible studies, preferably, but not limited to the Old Testament field, and the Librarian at Princeton Theological Seminary, who will be the convener. Each book or other scholarly tool purchased from the proceeds of this fund will be so designated by an appropriate book plate.

COACHES' CORNER

This will depend on whether enough of you sign up. Sign-up sheets will be on the bulletin board in Stuart Hall. Please put your name AND PHONE NUMBER. You may also call either Mark Laaser or Dave Vander Zwaag. Deadline for signing up will be March 4. Please help us by responding promptly if you are interested.

In intramural competition last week these were the results: The Nuptial Netters bombarded PW with a balanced scoring attack, to win easily, 59 - 46. The first half was close, but excellent shooting in the second half turned the tide. Both teams are 1 - 1. In the second game, the Fundies put the wraps on the Choir College, 50 - 40. MASON SHAMBECK and CLIFF CAIN led the Fundies, with 14 apiece. The Fundies remain undefeated and WCC winless. Our pre-season pick, the Brown Bombers embarrassed the Campbellites, 49 - 14. The Campbellites can't seem to generate their offense and simply couldn't contain the powerful Brown scorers. Brown is 2 - 0; the Campbellites, 0 - 2. Alex got its scoring more together this week, but their 46 points couldn't stand up to the merciless 68 points of the Humpz. SCOTT PATTERSON had 16 for the losers. GEN SCHAEFFER, JOHN HERSHEY and DICK RAMSEY led the Humpz in double figures. The winners are 2 - 0; the losers, 0 - 2. Mark & DAve.

COACHES' CORNER

We urgently plead with you to sign up for either the ping pong, squash or handball tournaments. (Or all three.) We don't have enough entires yet to hold these contests. By way of explanation, these tournaments will NOT be held on a given night, but over a period of time, with matches arranged at common convenience. Please sign up by Monday. Last week was probably the most exciting night we have had in intramural basketball for a long time. The first game was a battle to see who would stay winless. In a close game the Campbellites managed to become 0 - 3, losing to Alex, 42 - 39. SCOTT PATTERSON led the Alex scoring, with 18 points. / / / PW came from behind to beat the Fundies, 45 - 44. The winning basket was scored with several seconds left to play in a most exciting game. ART KOLBJORSEN led PW, with 14 points; DAVE EVANS had 3 clutch baskets in the last minutes, to turn the tide. / / The Humpz and Brown fought a physical contest, but it was the superior shooting of the Humpz which proved the difference, as they won 47 - 41. RON BENHAM and GENE SCHAEFER consistently hit from outside and together had 31 of the Humpz' 47 points. The Nuptial Netters went berserk, pasting the Choir College 98 - 52. The Netters' score was the highest intramural score in recent years. Six of the winners were in double figures, led by RON JOHNSON and MARK LAASER, with 20 apiece. Westminster played well, but could not contain the fast break and hot hands of their opponents. Mark & Dave.

RECYCLE YOUR FAITH DURING LENT

One of the long traditions of Lent in the Christian Church has been 1) the preparation of persons who are to be baptized or confirmed on Easter (at the Paschal Vigil) and 2) the recycling of all Christians, causing them to review, annually, the story of their salvation.

The Chapel Committee has adopted a lectionary for Lent which uses traditional lessons and themes (and which could become the outline for a confirmation class). This outline summarizes salvation history, focusing on the themes of FIRE (burning, purifying, illuminating and guiding), WATER (destroying evil, bringing new life, the crossing of the sea and Jordan, and Baptism), BOOD (the sacrifice of the paschal lamb and of the Lamb of God) and the SACRED MEAL (the Passover Meal, the Eucharist and the eschatological banquet).

We are asking chapel leaders to follow closely the outline and the themes, and to use the indicated lessons. The theme of penitence should be evident throughout, and we hope that many members of the campus community will adopt this outline for the recycling of their own Christian lives as we prepare to greet once again the resurrection of our Lord.

Among the traditional disciplines of Lent is disciplined study. Try it again, or with new dedication. Also included is self-examination on the way to new commitment. As a part of this, fasting is a widely accepted discipline. People at PTS are encouraged to consider this discipline, abstaining from certain foods, usually meats, during the Fridays of Lent. For those who have indicated that they will abstain from the luncheon meal each Friday a service of worship or a fellowship is being planned. In addition, all are urged to fast on Good Friday. Those who sign up for that fast will have their board cards pulled, and proceeds will be forwarded to CROP. Those who do not eat in the Campus Center may contribute the cost of their food for that day.

Of all the disciplines of Lent, perhaps the most important is that of identifying with the Body of Christ in its worship. Make Chapel a part of your daily discipline.

Also note that the Sacrament of the Eucharist is to be celebrated each Sunday evening in Miller Chapel at 10:15 o'clock. The services, 45 minutes in length, are planned so that people may attend who return late from their field work.

So we have the following:

Sunday Eucharist,	10:15 P.M.
Daily Chapel,	12:00 noon Monday, 10:00 Tuesday-Friday
Friday Service,	12:35 P.M. (in addition to 10 A.M. service)

VIGIL PREPARATION: To prepare for the Paschal Vigil celebration of the resurrection of Christ please read the January 1974 issue of Liturgy (magazine), which has a full account of the 1973 service, complete with photographs. Copies are available for 75¢ in the Theological Book Agency.

People planning to bring church groups to the Vigil are urged to purchase copies of Liturgy for their guests. All persons who were not involved in last year's Vigil are encouraged to read pages 4-8, "From the Wineskin," as they are reproduced in Liturgy from last year's preparatory articles. These articles give a historical and theological background of the service which is necessary to understand the flow and sequence of Vigil events.

Planning for the 1974 Vigil has begun, with a Steering Committee which includes: Mses Barbara Sterling and Katherine Sakenfeld & Messrs. W. J. Beeners, Craig Eriksson, Arlo Duba, chmn, Dave Hawk, Robert Jacks, Rich Weis and Ken Williams. This group requests suggestions and proposals from the Seminary Community on possible ways of interpreting or expositing the lessons of the Vigil, and would ask for volunteers able to work on typing, props, lighting, the breakfast, publicity and other facets of the celebration. If you can help, contact Dr. Duba in Room 118, Hodge Hall. [Guide to the Scriptures for Lent overleaf.]

Wilson had taught sociology at the University of Leeds for several years. In 1957-58 he was Commonwealth Fund Fellow at the University of California, Berkeley, and in 1966-67 returned to that institution as a Fellow of the American Council of Learned Societies. Among his published works are "Sects and Society," "Religious Sects" and "Religion in Secular Society." He has recently edited a volume of research studies, "Patterns of Sectarianism," and at present is at work on a book describing millenial movements.

4. NB: EXTENDED CHAPEL. "The Finality of Jesus Christ" was central to Robert E. Speer's life. He used it as the general topic of the L.P. Stone Lecture series he delivered at Princeton Seminary and later collected his thoughts into a book with the same title. Of this theme Dr. McCord recently wrote: "This is a crucial theme in the life of the Church today, especially in the mission field." As an undergraduate at Princeton University, in 1885, Speer fell under the influence of Robert Wilder and John Forman, who had returned to their alma mater to challenge students to volunteer for missionary service. An outstanding athlete and valedictorian of his university class, Speer abandoned his projected legal career to enter Princeton Seminary--only to resign from the Seminary to enter the service of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. He was appointed an executive secretary of the Board and remained in this position until his retirement, 46 years later. In addition, he served from 1920 to 1924 as president of the Federal Council of Churches in North America, was for a time president of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America and served as Moderator of his church's 1927 General Assembly. For many years he was a member of Princeton Seminary's Board of Directors; from 1937 to 1947, President of the Board of Trustees. The lecture is made possible by the Robert E. Speer Fund, established by the Huntingdon Presbytery of Philadelphia "to make available the riches of Robert E. Speer to this generation." Dr. Speer was born in Huntingdon.

5. Those students who will attend the supper meeting are requested to contact either Nymphas or Carl by Friday, March 8, so that appropriate arrangements may be made. Spouses and children are also invited. Those who need transportation are asked to assemble in front of the Cafeteria on Wednesday at 6 P.M. Married students with cooking facilities who wish to bring dishes are requested to contact either Nymphas (924-3172) or Carl (924-1296) by Friday, March 8.

6. Dr. Russell, a graduate of Wellesley College, holds S.T.M. and Th.D. degrees from Union Theological Seminary, New York. Instrumental in the organization and direction of that city's East Harlem Parish, she has been Professor of Religion at Manhattan College and New York Theological Seminary and Religious Consultant to the National Board of the YWCA. She is the author of several articles and pamphlets on women's liberation and the church. Professor Russell will teach a course in Princeton Seminary's 1974 Summer School.

The Pastoral Counseling group will be directed by the Reverend Shirley W. Causey, Director of Lutheran Community Services Suffolk Center in Hauppaug, New York.

The Reverend Nancy WINTRINGER Wood (67B), Campus Chaplain at Case Western Reserve University, will lead the Campus Ministry group.

Women and the Law is the topic for attorney Suzanne Noble (66B), a former social worker who is currently law clerk for a Philadelphia judge. Her present work is concerned chiefly with cases involving women and children. [Continued, overleaf.]

Women and Church Music will be led by Ms. Lynelle Moulton Williams, a coloratura soprano who has been soloist in churches in Macon, Atlanta, Wilmington and Millburn; sung with Robert Shaw; soloed with the Atlanta Singers, the Atlanta Chamber Opera, the Wilmington Opera Society and the Madrigal Singers of Wilmington; and is in demand as an oratorio soloist. With her husband (PTS Music Director Kenneth Williams) she conducted seminars on the Soloist in Reformed Worship for the 1971 and 1973 Conferences on Worship and Music sponsored by the UPUSA and PCUS at Montreat, North Carolina.

PRINCETON BLOOD DONOR PROGRAM: As co-chairman of the Seminary portion of the Princeton Blood Donor Program, I wish to thank all of those who donated this past year. Everyone will be happy to know that we met our quota for 1973 and are members in good standing. Numerous members of our community have benefited from this program. Let me take this opportunity to remind you that, should you OR SOMEONE IN YOUR IMMEDIATE FAMILY need blood, please contact me for either credit or replacement.

We are now well into 1974, and some new faces are on campus--as well as some who were unable to be typed in December. A blood-typing session is planned for TUESDAY, MARCH 12, from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., in the foyer of the Campus Center. This is a very simple process, taking only a few minutes. The local Red Cross will arrange appointments at Princeton Hospital for donations based upon this typing information.

Please join with us in this most worthwhile project. Thank you.

Clarence E. Reed, Co-Chairman
Princeton Seminary Blood Donor Program

THE 1974 STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN HAS ENDED ITS INITIAL PHASE. At its last meeting the Stewardship Committee completed allocations to the following organizations:

International Students Scholarship Fund	$ 296.65
Princeton Street Ministry	294.90
Prison Services Committee	313.05
Student Mobilization against the Famine	557.90

These four concerns were described in the information circulated before the fund-raising drive in December. The differences in the amounts allocated correspond to the different designations which individuals made for their pledges.

Since the December drive several concerns have come before the Stewardship Committee; from these three were chosen to receive money from the Reserve Fund. These three, like the four mentioned above, involve members and alumni of the Seminary Community:

Corrymeela Youth Work	297.36
Plainfield Joint Defense Committee	297.36
The Buckhorn Children's Center	297.36

Because space does not permit descriptions of these activities in the current issue of The Wineskin, explanations of the use of Stewardship funds will be printed in succeeding issues.

These allocations exhaust the present funds, except for that money held in reserve for personal emergency needs. If an urgent need for money for a given cause or organization arises later in the year, the Stewardship Committee will conduct a fund-raising drive. Please feel free to bring any concerns or questions to any members of the Stewardship Committee. Dr. George Sweazey is the present Chairperson. Cullan Herald.

COACHES' CORNER

As spring training opens in Florida and Arizona, let us not forget that softball at PTS cannot be too far behind! We are placing a deadline of March 25 for entries in this year's softball intramural league. The first six rosters will be accepted. As in football, rosters are not limited to specific dormitories.

WATCH THE BULLETIN BOARD IN STUART HALL FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS ABOUT MATCH-UPS IN THE HANDBALL, SQUASH AND PINGPONG TOURNAMENTS.

Our preseason picks--the Brown Bombers--suffered their second straight loss last week at the hands of the Nuptial Netters, 48-35. The chances of the Bombers are now bleak, while the NNs have a shot at a tie for first. RANDY REEVES had 14 points to lead a well balanced attack for the winners.///The hapless Choir College led the first-place Humpz by 1 at the half but still managed to get clobbered, 72-37. The Humpz came out of their trance long enough to earn the win. GENE SCHAEFFER, JOHN HERSHEY AND DICK RAMSEY had 57 of the 72 points among them.///Princeton-Windsor handed their fourth straight defeat to the Campbellites, 53-28, as the Campbellites just can't seem to get it together this year. GLENN KENNEDY and DAVE EVANS led PW with 16 apiece.///In the night's final action, the Fundies embarrassed Alex, 62-20. Alex has had its shooting troubles, while the Fudies had a hot hand. MASON SHAMBACH led them with 19.

If any of you have been wondering what's been happening to our usual STAR OF THE GAME, we offer two reasons: (1) Our usual scout was caught in the act of receiving bribes from a player who shall remain anonymous; (2) we fear that, if we should select and publish our all stars, we would run the risk of having one taken political prisoner--as was the case last year, when BILL ROBINSON was kidnapped by Moody Bible Institute.

THE STANDINGS: Humps, 4-0; Nuptial Netters, 3-1; Fundies, 3-1; P-W, 3-1
Brown, 2-2; Alex, 1-3; Campbellites, 0-4; Westminster, 0-4. Mark & Dave.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT [continued from last week]: Corrymeela Youth Work, $297.36.
Corrymeela is a group of 50 Protestant and Catholic clergy and lay members who have joined together to work for reconciliation in Ireland. They maintain a conference and retreat center and carry out much social work in riot-torn areas of Belfast, Londonderry and other parts of the province. One of their developing projects is fostering a mixed Catholic-Protestant youth group, in an attempt to allow the teenagers to come to their own understanding of each other and their own commitment to reconciliation in Ireland. The funds from the Stewardship drive will be put toward rental or purchase of a meeting place for the youth group and/or the cost of transporting the teenagers from their home districts to a neutral site, so that the friendship, once begun, may be safely continued. [More next week.]

COACHES' CORNER

To dispel numerous rumors which have reached our attention, we have no plans of turning the annual King's Inn Run into P.T.S.' first "streak." We believe, however, that such a streak would be the longest recorded yet, and this is tempting. . . .

Tournament schedules are up in Stuart Hall for pingpong, squash and handball. Check them and play your matches soon. MARK LAASER, the pre-tournament pingpong favorite, was asked to withdraw, due to professionalism charges.

In intramural b-ball, the big news was the Choir College's victory over the Campbellites 56-36. An obviously fired-up WCC earned their second win in the last three years with some tenacious hustle. At press time high athlete officials are looking into charges that the Campbellites threw the game for charitable reasons.

In other action the Nuptial Netters defeated Alex, 57-45. The win brought the Netters to a 4-1 record and a chance to tie the Humpz when they play next week. The Fundies handed Brown their third straight loss, 53-35. The Fundies attributed their success to cheerleaders ANN BRANDON, JODY WIEKS and LOUISE UPCHURCH. The Humpz rolled to their fifth straight win, 60-41. The Humpz' next two games, against the Netters and the Fundies, will determine this year's championship.

NOTES

CHARISMATIC CONFERENCE AT SEMINARY:UNIVERSITY - A special committee of the 182d General Assembly, UPUSA, in its report "The Work of the Holy Spirit" concluded a section with the statement "The committee would, therefore, call on the Church to undertake a new and creative theological exploration concerning the person and work of the Holy Spirit." In response to the need to explore and transcend the polarization and alienation occasioned by human reactions and responses to the action of the grace of Christ the present conference has been called by the Princeton University Chapel Fellowship, the PTS Chapel Group and the Princeton Prayer and Praise Fellowship. THE MORNING WORSHIP SERVICES AND AFTERNOON FORUMS ARE DESIGNED FOR SEMINARY AND UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, MINISTERS AND CHURCH LEADERS. The Evening Worship services are open.

The Reverend James H. Brown will be over-all worship leader.

Dr. Mackay, one of the originators of the ecumenical movement, founded and for several years edited Theology Today. Since his retirement as President of Princeton Seminary he has taught Hispanic thought at American University. He is the author of 11 books.

Dr. Williams is a member of the Faith and Order Commission of the WCC, a director for the European Charismatic Leaders Conference and a member of the dialogue team to the Vatican concerning the work of the Holy Spirit. Among his four published books are "Contemporary Existentialism and Christian Faith" and "The Pentecostal Reality."

Fr. Bennett attracted world attention as Rector of St. Mark's, Van Nuys, California, by introducing the Charismatic Renewal to his congregation. He is the author of "Nine O'Clock in the Morning" and, with his wife, "The Holy Spirit and You."

Dr. Bradford for the past six years has traveled constantly to speak and minister at churhces and conferences.

Mr. Brown, a 1938 graduate of PTS, has since graduation been pastor of the Upper Octorara United Presbyterian Church of Parkesburg, Pennsylvania. From 1947 to 1958 he also was Assistand Professor of Systematic Theology at the Presbyterian Seminary of Lincoln University; and he has been moderator and stated clerk of his Presbytery. He is a recognized leader of the Charismatic Renewal of the Church, a movement in which he has been active for 14 years.

Mr. Townsend, a Senior M.Div. candidate, will be joined by Ms. Shirley Thompson, a student at Westminster Choir College. A native of Washington, D.C., he is the third in a family of 10 children. He began his musical work under George Harshaw of Washington and majored in music at McKinley Technical High School and Millikin University, from which he graduated cum laude. At Millikin he studied with Professor Wesley Snyder. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Phi Kappa Lambda and Phi Kappa Phi and has been listed three times in "Who's Who among Students in Colleges and Universities." Awarded a Protestant Fellowship by the Fund for Theological Education, he was also the winner of an Ecumenical Workcamp Scholarship which sent him, in the summer of 1969, to the Portuguese Ecumenical Center in Figueira da Foz. He has been Director of Music at the First Baptist Church, Princeton, and Director of the United Voices.

Mr. Campbell, a graduate of Bloomfield, Westminster Choir and Trenton State Colleges, is also a Senior M.Div. candidate. He has served recently as accompanist for tenor Barry White in his Princeton sppearances.

The program will include such familiar songs as "Go Tell It on the Mountain," "Were You There?" "He Never Said a Mumblin' Word," "Mary Had a Baby" and "Calvary."

This is an unadvertised "benefit" performance for the Seminary, and we are grateful o Mr. Richard Knight, manager of the Playhouse and the Garden, for his interest and coopera- ion. "Superstar" is not only well known for its music and visual effects; it has been criti- ized by Jewish leaders as anti-Semitic, and the role of Judas is played by a black militant.

TEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT (continued): Plainfield Joint Defense Committee - $297.36

The legal defense of Gail Madden and George Merritt, indicted for the murder of a Plain- field, New Jersey, policeman in 1967, has been the concern of many members of the Semi- nary community through the past seven years. On February 16, 1974, they were both found guilty of the charge and sentenced to life imprisonment. Appeal proceedings are again be- ginning. IN BASKETBALL: The Campbellites lost their sixth straight, 60-23. For the Fudies MASON SHAMBACH had 19, and Dandy Dave Beivik had 10. Alex has been playing much better lately, but still managed to get beaten 64-54 by PW. ROGER LEHMAN, MIKE BRUINOOGE, and ART KOLBJORNSEN had 48 of the 64 among them. The Choir College forfeited to Brown when the exercising of their voices became more important than the game. The Humpz and Netters played an important game to see who would be in first. NOTES

1. "A Child's Guide to Holy Week," with Kenneth Williams, Craig Eriksson, Sherry Brabham, Beth Johnson, Laura Loving, Dr. W. B. Beeners and puppet Humphrey Mortimer Klinker. Through dramatic readings, puppetry, children's anthems, improvisatory music, banners and Lenten hymns, the themes and moods of Holy Week will be presented. Children from the area, grades 1 through 6, will attend and participate.

2. The first hour of the Good Friday services in Trinity will be based on early patristic sources and will include guided meditation on the Cross, music by the Princeton Seminary Choir and a sermon by the Reverend Dr. Karlfried Froehlich. The second hour will be on a medieval theme, with the clergy and choirs of Trinity parish. The third hour is planned in a contemporary vein, with the Princeton Seminary dance ensemble, music by the Trinity Adult Choir and a sermon by the Reverend Dr. Geddes W. Hanson.

The Watch of Mourning will be conducted in 15-minute intervals. During the Watch the Book of Lamentation and Psalm 119 will be read aloud by members of the Seminary community. At 7:45 P.M. "Contemplation of the Cross" will interrupt the Watch for an hour.

The Paschal Vigil, a unified service, moves from the announcement of Creation through history to the culminating eschatological banquet--the Eucharist and Paschal breakfast. Although it begins in Miller Chapel, various portions will be held in other parts of the campus, some, weather permitting, out of doors; so it is possible to attend events within the Vigil as time permits; young people of junior high school age or younger should plan to take "time out."

Bulletins for the service are available; a complete description is in the January 1974 issue of Liturgy available in the TBA at 75¢. Candles will also be on hand, but it is urged that each participant bring his own, large candle. Those who bring small bells, to be rung at the announcement of the Resurrection, must keep them in pocket and silent until the proper moment. Thos who plan to carry banners representative of any Vigil theme are urged to call Dr. Duba (Ext. 250) to arrange for incorporation of their work into the service. Each participants is urged also to bring unsliced bread, preferably homemade, to be presented at the Eucharist and for the Paschal breakfast. This last will be provided by those who will share the meal. Hard-cooked colored eggs, milk, cold cuts and cheeses are suggested, each bringing enough for five portions of whatever food he supplies. These should be brought to the Campus Center on Saturday between 6:30 and 7:30 P.M.; the bread should be brought in the same hour to the station wagon parked near Miller Chapel.

URGENT NOTICE

FASTING FELLOWSHIP, 5 APRIL, WILL BE HELD IN THE ALUMNI ROOM OF THE CAMPUS CENTER, 12:30 P.M. On GOOD FRIDAY, the fast will be combined with the worship service.

Faculty, staff and non-board students: Contributions for the equivalent of one day's food would be appreciated. Make checks payable to CROP.

"JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR" REVIEWS: The New York Times: "Is 'Superstar' about Christ--or about us? . The character called Jesus is, to those of us who were involved in the civil rights and antiwar struggles every sacrificing man of God we ever followed, from Martin Luther King to Dan and Phil Berrigan. Each started out teaching truths, basic and important truths. . .Each became the center of a cult." Billy Graham (in "The Jesus Generation"): ". .it treats Christ irreverently and perhaps sacrilegiously . . it doesn't go far enough." Malcolm Boyd ("Jesus Betrayed Again," Newsweek):"Jewish priests, scowling unhealthily. . peer down. . at the Middle-American Jesus who strides up the road surrounded not by sweating disciples but--of course--flower children. Theirs is the kingdom. . .When Judas angrily stalks away from Jesus. . dozens of white hands are raised in a praise-and-clapping sequence; superimposed. . is the departing, alienated black figure." Cheryl Forbes, in Christianity Today: "Superstar brings us together--in protest. . . a theological disaster has become an ecumenical triumph. Protestants, Catholics, Jews for Jesus and Jews for Judaism have all joined in denouncing ["Superstar"] as anti-Semitic. . . One viewer as he left the theater said, 'No matter what you believe, Jesus makes a good story.' What we need, however, is a Christian filmmaker to produce the true story."-------Kerr: "Any film that draws so much fire, from so many big guns, can't be all bad. Part of the problem is the dramatic dilemma of presenting Jesus as a man who is also the Christ. How can we visualize the divine in human form? Or human nature as revealing God? Perhaps we shouldn't even try. Or we should try harder. Even within the context of critique the film can provoke, unsettle, incite and intrigue. That's more than most sermons or theological lectures achieve." Garden Theater, Maundy Thursday, 2:30 P.M. $1.00 donation.

COACHES' CORNER

It's time again for Princeton Seminary's very own special answer to the Boston Marathon --the SECOND ANNUAL KING'S INN RUN. Those courageous few of you who made the pilgrimage of 4 1/2 miles last year are, we know, looking forward to this great event again; and we invite those of you who have never truly experienced athletic triumph to come out this year and try to make it. (That includes you Women!) The "annual run for glory," as it has come to be known, will take place on Thursday, April 18, at 4 P.M. We will assemble on the campus green a short time before. After a short period of contemplation, we will be started by a surprise "seminary high official." We look forward to your presence. The Rewards are Sweet! Sign up by giving your name to either Dave or Mark--or by signing up in Stuart Hall.

It's also SOFTBALL SEASON. Games begin next Wednesday. Schedules should be up on your bulletin boards before Friday.

Before we left for vacation the intramural basketball season closed with a BANG. The Humpz won the championship by defeating the Fundies, 68-60. RON BENHAM and GENE SCHAEFFER led the high-powered Humpz with 28 and 23 points, respectively. The final standings are:

Fundies, 5-2	Alex, 2-5
P-W, 5-2	Choir College, 1-6
Nuptial Netters, 4-3	Campbellites, 1-6

We have refrained all year from selecting a Star of the Game, but here are the over-all scoring leaders for this year:

NOTE

The accomplishments of artist-calligrapher Margaret Rigg range from serving on the curriculum revision committee at Eckerd College, Florida, where she is Associate Professor of Art in the Collegium of Creative Arts, to designing two rose windows for the National Cathedral in Mexico City. She is a veteran of 25 group shows, in this country and Korea, and of 24 national and 11 international one-woman exhibitions--the last in Mexico, Japan, Finland, France, Jamaica, Korea, Lebanon and Oman. She is involved in Bi-National Servant, organized by the Presbyterian Church Program Agency to stimulate cultural exchange among Korean and American scholars, artists and sociologists. Ms. Rigg is also beginning talks with Seminole artists and craftspeople to encourage production and sales of Seminole art forms as a national heritage. In preparation are an article on the Ceramics of Whang, Chong-Ney, a contemporary Korean potter; and a Possum Press book (her second) collecting poetry and calligraphies by various writers and artists.

The Reverend Dr. Barbara Hall, a graduate of Bucknell and Yale Universities, earned her divinity degrees at Union Theological Seminary, New York. She has been assistant director of the Westminster Foundation, University of California at Berkeley; and a missionary in Brazil for both the UPUSA and the Protestant Episcopal Church in the USA. In 1970 and 1972 she collaborated with Professor Richard Shaull to conduct ecumenical seminars and in 1971 worked with him at San Francisco Theological Seminary in a seminar for the Doctor of Sacred Theology program. She has also taught or conducted seminars at St. Joseph's and LaSalle in Philadelphia and at Vassar. Since 1969 Ms. Hall has been a member of the Colloquy in Reston Virginia, a theological community which works on theological and educational problems through courses, seminars, workshops and publications.

ATTENTION SEMINARY COMMUNITY!

Seminary wives have gone to a lot of effort (including a hoagie sale and a tupperware party) to help sponsor an all-Seminary dance.

If in fact the Seminary Community is really interested in this dance, we need support in terms of ticket donations. Tickets will be available during regular office hours from Mrs. Tucker at the switchboard in the Administration Building and outside the Main Dining Room during the noon hours. Your place can also be reserved by calling Lynn Seydel (452-1494).

(Incidentally, dress for the dance has been changed to "casual."

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
Easter Eve, April 13, 1974

1. The service will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Miller Chapel, and will then move to other stations, some outdoors (weather permitting), concluding with the Eucharist, again in Miller Chapel, from about 11:00 to 11:30 p.m.

2. It is possible to "drop in" and "drop out" at various times during the evening, and it is suggested that persons of junior high age or younger plan to take some "time out". However, persons should be aware that the Vigil service is a unity, from its announcement of the Creation, moving through history to the culminating eschatological banquet (Eucharist and Paschal breakfast).

3. A Lamentation (or watch of mourning) will be taking place in fifteen minute intervals in Miller Chapel beginning at the conclusion of the three hour Good Friday service and continuing until the Vigil begins. Persons who arrive early for the Vigil may want to enter the Chapel for one or more segments of that service on Saturday evening, the last being at 7:15.

4. Bulletins for the Vigil service will be available. Candles also will be available, although it is strongly urged that people bring their own (large) candles if at all possible. In keeping with an old tradition, bells will be rung at the announcement of the resurrection. People may want to bring small bells and keep them in pockets (and silent) until the proper time.

5. OUTSIDE GROUPS
Groups from outside the seminary community are encouraged to attend the Vigil only if they understand the nature of this service and can be involved as participants and not just spectators. For information read pp. 4 - 8 of Liturgy magazine, January 1974 issue, which contains an account of the 1973 Vigil at PTS. Copies of the magazine are available (75¢) at the Theological Book Agency at the Seminary.

James Quinn

6. Groups from the Campus or outside are asked to participate by bringing bread (unsliced and preferably homemade) for the Eucharist and breakfast, and perhaps by carrying a banner representative of one of the Vigil themes. If you plan to bring a banner please call Dr. Arlo Duba (921-8300) to arrange for the incorporation of the banner into the service.

7. THE BREAKFAST
Immediately following the Eucharist, we will share a breakfast in the Campus Center Dining Room (about midnight). The dining room will provide coffee, tea and milk, plates, flatware, cups, glasses and napkins (50¢ per person). Participants are asked to bring, pot-luck fashion, the food for the breakfast, foods which point to the foods of the Promised Land. The memu should include:

Bread (brought over from the Eucharist
*Wine
Milk
*Honey (at least by the qt.)
*Eggs (hard-cooked, colored)
Salads (potato or egg)

Meat
*Whole sausages
*Cold Cuts
Cold roast meats (ham, lamb, beef, etc.)
Cheese
*Whole cheeses
cheese dumplings or breads

*Starred items seem most adaptable for students (single or in groups) who do not have access to a kitchen. It is hoped that students, faculty and others with kitchens will offer them to those who would like to prepare foods. Persons who need kitchens or with kitchens to offer should call Jim and Valerie Pohlhammer (921-7472).

Each person should plan to bring five servings of the food brought, or food with a value of about $1.00.

Food for the breakfast will be received at the Campus Center between 6:30 and 7:30. During that same hour, bread which the participants will later pick up and carry into the Chapel for the Eucharist will be received and placed in a station wagon near the Chapel steps.

If you are planning to participate in the Breakfast, please fill in the blank below and return to Dr. Arlo Duba via the switchboard at the Seminary in order to make reservation.

NOTES

1. The invitation to meet Mr. Smith is extended to all United Presbyterian students, especially seniors and their spouses. Come and bring your questions and learn of the provisions made by the Board of Pensions. Every minister becomes a member of the United Pension Plan, by the terms of his call, and it is of the utmost importance that you learn now about its provisions and how you will enter upon it. ALL seniors are urged to attend.

2. Mr. Escobar, a native of Argentina, is a graduate of the University of Lima, Peru. Long associated with Third World concerns, he formerly was editor of Certeza, the Latin-American student magazine. He was a key speaker at the Urbana '70 and '73 Inter-Varsity Missionary Conventions at the University of Illinois. He has been invited to attend the July 16 - 25 International Congress on World Evangelism in Lausanne. Further information on his Princeton visit may be obtained by calling David E. Lindsay, 452-1253. The meeting is sponsored by the Theological Forum.

3. Dr. Kalu is the author of "Divided People of God: Church Union Movement in Nigeria, 1867-1966," to be published in May, and "Religious Policy and Practice in Jacobean England," to be published in December. He is editor of "Christianity and Higher Education in Nigeria." Mr. Onawale, a former evangelist-missioner, was ordained by the United Church of Northern India--a fourth-generation Christian and son of a minister. He has been pastor of several rural Indian parishes, an instructor at United Theological College, India, and a missionary for the First Congregational Church of Columbus, Ohio.

Princeton Seminary has one of the largest concentrations of international students of any theological institution in this country--58 from 24 nations. To exercise the full potential of these students and to promote better exchange of ideas and fellowship, both among them and between them and the American-born students, the International Students' Association has established the International Roundtable. To this open forum will be invited speakers engaged in research and special programs who will deliver papers on issues of concern to both foreign- and native-born theologians--papers designed to educate and to raise consciousness.

Whether this type of program is capable of arousing interest is not known. Success will depend largely upon how serious participants take the series--and themselves. It will provide for all those who have deplored lack of fellowship and exchange of views an opportunity to commit themselves to a serious effort to change the situation.

4. For all those interested in doing field education work with the Prison Service Committee. The persons named will inform and answer questions. If you hope to follow in their footsteps, please come.

Charles Headington.

"RELATING CHRISTIAN FAITH AND SOUND RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN MEN AND WOMEN" is to be the theme when Howard and Charlotte Clinebell of Claremont lead the Annual Retreat, sponsored by the Masters-in-Residence, in the Campus Center, Friday evening and Saturday, May 10 and 11, 1974.

Following the schedule used for the successful Nouwen Retreat last year, participants will meet in convocations and small groups on Friday, 8 to 10 p.m., and Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon and 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Small children will be cared for, without charge, on Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.,

that parents will be expected to arrange for lunch with their children between 12 noon and 1:30 p.m. Last year some brought picnic lunches; others bought lunch for their children in the Campus Center Dining Room.

The Clinebells have written extensively. They suggest for preparatory reading: "Meet Me in the Middle," by Charlotte H. Clinebell; "The People Dynamic," by Howard J. Clinebell, Jr. (both Harper and Row); and "Beyond God the Father," by Mary Daly (Beacon Press).

Registration for the Retreat may be made through the Masters-in-Residence without cost, on a first come-first-served basis. Arthur M. Adams.

COACHES'

OPINION

Last week witnessed the opening of the PTS softball season out at Princeton-Windsor field. It was an opening of historic precedence, as this year marked the entry of the first all-girl softball team. The women's first opponents, the men of North, waited nervously to see how good the women really would be. There had been various accounts of the team's practice sessions, but no one really knew just what were the capabilities of their team. Many of the North team were veterans of this past summer's championship team of the Princeton University League, and there were some thoughts of what it would do to their image (and their egos) to be beaten by the women. Tensions soon eased, as it became evident that the Base Belles (as the women's team are known) were no match for North. Omitting the gruesome details, the final score (after 3 1/2 innings, due to a time factor) was 40 - 0. We should point out that Marti Bellinger pitched a good game for the Belles, but had poor support in the field. Bellinger had 3 strike-outs to her credit--a rarity in slow pitch ball, all against the same hapless North player (name withheld). Lest we be labeled male chauvinists, we hasten to add that we speculate that the results might have been similar against a team of men brought up not to indulge in sports and with little experience in the game. Perhaps we will know in future years how good a woman's team can be when they have been given a chance to compete on the same level with men all their lives.

In other results of the day, the Independents beat P-W, 5 - 2, on a three-run homer by Ed Hardwick in the fifth inning. WCC beat Alex in eight innings.

It has been brought to our attention that a group of women, primarily married women, have banded together to play softball against each other. If you are interested, contact Brenda Dunlap, 452-7516, or Sharon Copeland, 924-8914.

WE HAVE BEEN CHALLENGED to a basketball game for the NEW JERSEY STATE SEMINARY CHAMPIONSHIP by NEW BRUNSWICK SEMINARY. We have scheduled a game for April 26, at 7:30 P.M. in Whitely Gymnasium. KEEP IN SHAPE FOR THIS ONE, YOU VARSITY PLAYERS!! Mark & Dave.

COACHES' CORNER

FLASH! Grand Premier! We have learned that the athletic movie which has been made during the whole year will soon be ready for its first showing. Its producers, directors, photographers, editors, etc. (occasional stars), Mark and Dave, have scheduled the initial screening for Sunday, May 5, at 9 P.M., in the Alexander Lounge. The film includes for all of you who want to see yourselves: summer softball championship, fall football, the Fall Run, 3-man basketball, co-ed volleyball, intramural basketball, the K-I Run and intramural softball, including exciting highlights of the women's team.

[Overleaf, please.]

In softball last week the Indies beat Alex, 15-4; P-W beat North, 5-3; and the Choir College won its first game in years, 35-0, over the Base Belles. The Indies are in first place.

THE SECOND ANNUAL K.I. RUN was held last week and again it was a smashing success! Although times this year were much slower than last, we commend all who made it, especially the lone woman, Lee ("Bird") BECKHUSEN, who was brave enough to run. A highlight of this year's run was the speech by our official starter, Dr. McCord. Dr. McCord referred to our destination as "that great Calvinistic Resting Place." He fired us up with a speech that would have done justice to Knute Rockne and then started us with a pistol, wincing as he fired it. For his splendid effort Dr. McCord was given an honorary K.I. Run Certificate testifying to his participation--the first non-runner to receive such an award--another pace-setting precedent by our famous President.

We call special attention to the first three finishers. First place was won by DAVE ODELL, with a time of 27:34; next was Kevin HORRIGAN, 29:40; third, with a time of 31:51, was Jeff Hauser (a ringer from Carrier Clinic). Other finishers were--in no special order--Dave Sworin, Bill Patterson, Mason Shambach, Ed Hardwick, Lewis Leon, John McDowell, Doug Fletcher, Ken Schmidt, Scott Opsahl, Ray Smith, Lee Beckhusen, Dave Rider, Dave Huffman, Ed Salo and Cliff Cain. Once at the K.I. "refreshments" were enjoyed by all. Special thanks to our timer, Val Fowler; toastmaster, Ron Benham; and all our drivers.

Mark & Dave

COACHES' CORNER

This is the last article the present Athletic Chairpersons will submit to The Wineskin. Before reporting what the athletic news is, Dave and I would like to express our thanks to the many of you who have both helped and participated in our various programs. Our work has been both rewarding and exciting for us. It has been difficult and disappointing at times, as well, but so is any other job.

We hope that we have made some contribution to the athletic experience at PTS, whatever that has been for you. We are sincerely happy that participation by women has increased in the last year. We take small credit for that and, instead, thank those enthusiastic women who have expanded our horizons. We hope that this trend can continue in the future. We are sorry that at times our comments in these articles have been interpreted as chauvinistic. Our intentions oculd not have been further from that over-worked word. At best, it must be said that a few careless instances of ambiguous reporting have led to some hurt feelings. We are the first to realize that women must be given their chance to compete. As males trying to go straight, we can only ask for the help of women in elevating our consciousness. When we do make mistakes, as will often happen in future years until the problem ceases to exist, we hymbly add that it does not help for a few women to overreact carelessly. This can only serve to prolong the problem. We pray that we can all work together to the enrichment of all.

The PTS Varsity Basketball Team responded to the challenge of New Brunswick Seminary last Friday night by soundly defeating their team 69-53. Once again GENUINE Calvinism prevailed! STEVE KENGETTER was high for us, with 20 pts. RON JOHNSON in his zeal for the faith severely sprained his ankle and may be seen yet hobbling around.

In softball, the Base Belles were defeated by Alex, 18 - 3. The three runs produced by the women were historic, in that they were the first to be scored against men at PTS [by women. ed.] in intramural competition, proving that it can be done. We personally are glad that we won't be around when the defense improves for the women. Ann Brandon, Babs Sterling, Chris Rannie, Gail Deason, Marty Bellinger and Karen Brostrom led the offense for the Belles. Chris Rannie suffered minor injuries when she was slid into playing second, and later was hit by a pitch. In other games North humbled the previously undefeated Independents, 14-5; and P-W beat the Choir College, 9-6.

Thanks again for a good year. Don't forget to come to see the highlights of the year on film--Sunday evening, May 5, at 9 P.M. in Alexander Lounge. Our best wishes to you all for the future. Mark & Dave.

Dear Friends:

This past week I accepted a job at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. Thus I will not be here when many of you return in the fall. Best wishes and God bless you.

Dean Hoge

May 21, 1974

Dear Colleagues:

Let me respond to the petition which was signed by many members of the Princeton Seminary community, requesting reconsideration of the decision to limit the male population in Hodge Hall.

The number of single men who can be accommodated during the 1974-75 academic year in Hodge Hall is limited because of the increase in the number of women who will require rooms in buildings which have adequate bathroom facilities for their use. Only Hodge Hall is so equipped. There are plans for renovation of other residence halls, but these plans can only be implemented when funds are available.

At this point the Seminary is faced with loss of income and sharply rising costs, and resources are not available for the renovation of additional residences. We regret that this is the situation, but funds will be actively sought for the purpose of modernizing existing buildings. However, for the next academic year at least it will be necessary to limit the number of single men residing in Hodge Hall.

Thank you for understanding the financial predicament of the Seminary today.

Sincerely yours,

ARTHUR M. ADAMS

Have a happy summer! Cara Davis Smith, Editor.
